General Comment

There is no way the Central Government should be involved in an issue such as this. You are invading the Private lives of Citizens and in turn asking for them to pay for or approve the poor judgment of others.

If a person wants to protect themselves from unwanted Pregnancies the best and only effective way is to not indulge in Sexual Intercourse, in the first place, then as an alternate method, buy what you need to help prevent getting Pregnant, but don't ask me or others to pay for it or force others to do so.

Adopt some Morale Responsibility for you own actions and try to follow good advice from the best source on this Subject, and that would be the Teachings of the Bible, not a teacher, Congressman, or friends.

If you play you pay, not us!
